KEYMACRO is a universal-keyboard macro application that allows you to write any word or sentence in any program with the help of one or more characters. It comes with a simple and intuitive interface that makes the tool easy to use and with a simple way to assign functions to its keys. When you create a macro, you can assign a function to a character, like a comma (,) or a capital letter A (A-Z). The combination of two or more keys together with this character has its own meaning: just one of the two characters remains blank (or unchanged) while the other one is interpreted as an instruction. For instance, 'A' is just a key and 'C' is its target character. If you type 'C', then the app will fill in the blank with the letter A. The same goes for the 'B' and 'D' characters. Once you've assigned a macro to a character, you can easily switch the target function for the character or every key combination at once. In addition, you can change the key as a whole. What this means is that you can write any sentence, phrase or simple word in any program with just one or more commands. Available features Support for new languages: Macro applications support all languages installed on your computer. You can choose which characters are assigned to the macro keys. You can also select a target application. Just one application is enough, but you can have as many as you want. Keyboard layouts: KeyMACRO lets you switch between different keyboard layouts (German, French, Spanish, American, British, Australian, etc.) and even between different applications (Microsoft Word, WordPad, Internet Explorer, etc.). This way you can easily write the text you want to save in any language with only a few clicks. The only limit is the number of different languages you have. Macro recording: The macro feature lets you record your actions and play them later on. You can choose the recorded steps and add them to the 'My Macros' tab. Customization: You can customize the default macro letters, and replace them with a character of your choice (A-Z). Text formatting: KeyMACRO supports different text and paragraph styles. This means that you can use bold, italic, underline, centered and other bold, italic, underline, etc. characters to make your text look great. Save macros: You can save your 81e310abf

The reason that I am replying is that it just seems to me that when someone is not interested in this game, they just reply with "No". and that is that. If you wish to purchase the game, I would not mind if I received an email from you saying that you had bought the game and that you would enjoy the game. But if you do not wish to, then it would be much more worth it for me to look at other things than to read that this game is not the one I wanted to buy.
